Religious Observance

Campania's religious observance policy allows students to make effective arrangements and fulfill their obligations, where necessary, to observe their religious practices, observances, and observance days. See the Campania religious observance policy for full details.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have a responsibility for maintaining an academic learning environment. The highest academic behavioral standards must be expected of all. Professional conduct and especially in an individual and academic setting, the difference of race, color, ethnicity, religion, creed, disability, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity and gender expression, age, disability, and nationality. Class members are expected to use their legal name. I will gladly help you add or change your name on your name tag. Please advise me if you have any concerns or if you would like to make a name change. For more information, see the classroom behavior and conduct.

Sexual Misconduct, Discrimination, Harassment, and/or Related Retaliation

The University of Central Florida (UCF) is committed to maintaining an academic learning, teaching, and living environment. UCF will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment, discrimination, or harassment. UCF's Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibits sexual harassment, sexual violence, and sexual assault, including dating violence, stalking, and sexual violence. UCF's Discrimination and Harassment Policy prohibits discrimination, harassment, and retaliation based on race, color, national origin, sex, pregnancy, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, and marital status. Individual students who believe they have been discriminated against should contact the
