Course Description

This course is the first of three semester courses that develop the basic tools and results of modern microeconomic analysis. The first semester course covers individual decision making and optimization theory.

The course is highly technical. Although mathem

Textbooks

The required textbooks are

Microeconomic Theory by Andreu Mas-Colell, Michael D. Whinston, and Jerry R. Green

A First Coursein Optimization Theory by Rangarajan K. Sundaram

The following four texts offer different presentations of the material in Mas-Colell, Whinston, and Green. If you find that you are having trouble with Mas-Colell, I urge you to obtain one or more of these texts to assist you in understanding Mas-Colell.

Advanced Microeconomic Theory by Geoffrey A. Jehle and Philip J. Reny

A Coursein Microsconomic Theory by David M. Kreps

Microsconomic Analysis by Hal R. Varian

Microsconomic Theory. Basic Principles and Extensions by Walter Nicholson and Christopher Snyder

If you find that you are having trouble with the mathematics used in this course, I recommend obtaining one or more of the following texts as references:

Fundamental Methods of Mathematical Economics by Alpha C. Chiang and Kevin Wainwright

Mathematics for Economics by Michael Hoy, John Livernois, Chris McKenna, Ray Rees, and Thanasis Stengos

Red Analysis with Economic Applications by Efe A. Ok specifications and Eawrence E. Blume by Efe A. Ok

University Policies

Students with Disabilities

If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit to me a letter from Disability Services by September 9th so that your needs may be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities. University policies regarding disabilities are available at www.colorado.edu/disabilityservices. Disability Services can be contacted by telephone at (303) 492 8671 or in person at Willard 322.

Religious Observances

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments, or required attendance. If you have a conflict due to a religious obligation, please see me at least one full week in advance so that alternate arrangements can be made. Policies regarding religious observances are available at www.colorado.edu/policies/fac relig.html.

Classroom Behavior

Students and faculty each have responsibility for maintaining an appropriate learning environment. Those who fail to adhere to such behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Professional courtesy and sensitivity are especially important with respect to individuals and topics dealing with differences of race, culture, religion, politics, sexual orientation, gender, gender variance, and nationalities. Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name. I will gladly honor your request to address you by an alternate name or gender pronoun. Please advise me of this preference early in the semester so that I may make appropriate changes to my records. Polices regarding classroom behavior are available at http://www.colorado.edu/studentaffairs/judicialaffairs/code.html#student_code.

Discrimination and Harassment

The University of Colorado at Boulder policy on Discrimination and Harassment, the University of Colorado policy on Sexual Harassment, and the University of Colorado policy on Amorous Relationships apply to all students, staff, and faculty. Any student, staff, or faculty member who believes s/he has been the subject of sexual harassment or discrimination or harassment based upon race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, creed, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status should contact the Office of Discrimination and Harassment (ODH) at (303) 492 2127 or the Office of Judicial Affairs at (303) 492 5550. Information about the ODH, the above referenced policies, and the campus resources available to assist individuals regarding discrimination or harassment can be obtained at http://www.colorado.edu/odh.

Academic Misconduct

All students of the University of Colorado at Boulder are responsible for knowing and adhering to the academic integrity policy of this institution. Violations of this policy may include cheating, plagiarism, aid of academic dishonesty, fabrication, lying, bribery, and threatening behavior. All incidents of academic misconduct shall be reported to the Honor Code Council (honor@colorado.edu, (303) 735 2273). Students who are found to be in violation of the academic integrity policy will be subject to both academic sanctions from the faculty member and non-academic sanctions (including but not limited to university probation, suspension, or expulsion). Other information on the Honor Code can be found at www.colorado.edu/policies/honor.html and at www.colorado.edu/academics/honorcode.
