Note that I reserve the right to change this syllabus at any time. This is your contract for the course. Please pay attention to the policies and note the given notice stating that I reserve the right to change them throughout the course.

Emails: This is a large class which makes answering every single email extremely costly. Therefore, I will only respond to emails if they cannot be answered by the syllabus. In addition, when I send out an email to the entire class and you have a follow-up question I ask that you do not reply to my email. If you qualify for accommodations because of a disability, please submit to your professor a letter from Disability Services in a timely manner (for exam accommodations provide your letter at least one week prior to the exam) so that your needs can be addressed. Disability Services determines accommodations based on documented disabilities. Contact Disability Services at 303-492-8671 or by e-mail at dsinfo@colorado.edu. If you have a temporary medical condition or injury, see Temporary Injuries guidelines under the Quick Links at the Disability Services website and discuss your needs with your professor.

Campus policy regarding religious observances requires that faculty make every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with all students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. In this class, if you have a conflict, please contact me at the beginning of the term so that we can make proper arrangements. See full details at http://www.colorado.edu/policies/fac_relig.html.
